THINGS WE LOVE

- Opening the front and back doors in the morning to let in the ocean breeze
- Enjoying a cup of coffee on the porch swing while neighbors walk their kids to school
- Chatting with our wonderful neighbors over the fence
- Heading up to Alhambra Hall at the end of the work day to let the dog play. It's the best unofficial dog park in town..can't beat the combo of the view and the breeze
- Cutting off work early to take the kids in the pool in the afternoon
- Having friends over for dinner on the back porch
- Relaxing on the porch to watch the sunset after coming home from a long work trip
- Golf cart rides up to the smoothie shop/bookstore/harbor beaches/Shem Creek
- Taking a break in the middle of the day to walk the dog on the Pitt Street Bridge
- Talking with the kids at the table while the evening light floods into the kitchen
- The sound of palm trees rustling in the wind
- Rinsing off in the pool after a long day on the beach at Sullivan's Island
