

FROM US TO YOU

We love this house for its serene mountain setting and breathtaking views. Sitting in the middle of 40 acres, it offers total privacy. Watching the sunset from the porch is a daily joy, and mornings are magical with hummingbirds visiting as we enjoy our coffee at sunrise. The sight of deer or moose right outside our bedroom window fills us with delight. Our flower garden, nestled among the rocks outside the primary bedroom, adds vibrant color to our home. The upper level is my creative haven, where the stunning mountain views inspire my art. We also enjoy playing music in this peaceful retreat. We love hiking on our property with our dogs, seeing them freely running around in the woods brings us so much happiness. No matter what life throws at us, the beauty of nature here reassures us that everything will be okay. Falling asleep under a sky full of stars is the perfect end to our days.

Santarsiere Family

*Information deemed reliable but not guaranteed

