

IF THESE WALLS COULD TALK...

---

Over the years, this home has truly been our happy place—a space filled with laughter, love, and unforgettable memories. From cherished vacation spent here to celebrating birthdays, hosting lively parties, and gathering for wedding celebrations, bridal showers, and bachelorette weekends, this condo has been the backdrop for so many special moments.

What we've loved most is the everyday beauty: looking out the window at the stunning tree glowing beside the pool at night, enjoying peaceful walks along the nearby trails, and embracing the calm of living by the water. Mornings often began with coffee on the third-floor deck, taking in the view, while evenings were best spent on the rooftop with a drink in hand, watching the sky change.

The sense of security here brings peace of mind, and the convenience of a lock-and-leave lifestyle—paired with the privacy of our own garage—has made life feel effortless. Every corner of this beautifully decorated home reflects warmth and comfort, and it has truly been a place we've loved coming back to, time and time again.