

41 LEGARE STREET

THINGS WE LOVE

- Location, location, location! Just steps from The Battery, White Point Garden, and some of Charleston's best dining, shops and galleries
- Historic character and charm seamlessly paired with thoughtfully updates for modern living
- Nestled on the corner of two of Charleston's most iconic and historic streets, Tradd & Legare, embodied with centuries of charm
- Timeless architecture with classic details like soaring ceilings, original hardwood floors, intricate moldings, and two piazzas
- Elevator for easy access to the third floor for groceries, luggage etc.
- Private piazza overlooking Tradd Street off the primary suite
- Second porch off the kitchen perfect for grilling and dining al fresco
- Charming built-ins all the way down the hall for additional storage
- Original floors preserving the historic character
- Office nook off the kitchen perfect for remote work
- Luxurious entry way with spacious staircase and ample natural light
- A fireplace in every room! 4 throughout the house adding to the history of the home
- High ceilings and ample windows on all sides allowing for an abundance of natural light throughout
- Formal dining space with fireplace to entertain family and friends
