A floor plan of a recreation room. The room is rectangular with a thick black border representing walls. On the top wall, there are two windows, each represented by a rectangle with horizontal lines. On the right wall, there is a door with an arrow pointing out. Attached to the right wall is a staircase with a landing. The staircase is shown as a grid of vertical and horizontal lines, with an arrow pointing down the stairs. The text 'RECREATION ROOM' and '19'8" x 10'10"' is centered in the room.
