This charming downtown Frederick Cape Cod blends timeless character with the rare conveniences today's buyers are searching for. From the welcoming front porch to the spacious rear patio with covered pavilion, this home offers inviting indoor-outdoor living perfect for relaxing, entertaining, or simply enjoying the charm of the neighborhood. A plush and private backyard, off-street parking, detached one-car garage, and two additional storage buildings are exceptional finds for downtown living—adding both functionality and flexibility in a highly walkable location just moments from Frederick's vibrant shops, dining, parks, and year-round events. Lovingly maintained and held in the same family since the 1960s, the home offers a warmth and sense of history that carries throughout. The main level features hardwood floors that create warmth and continuity, along with a spacious dining room and an eat-in kitchen offering 42-inch hickory cabinetry and included dishwasher, stove, refrigerator, and microwave. Two main-level bedrooms, along with an updated full bath featuring a walk-in shower, complete the main level. Upstairs, you'll find an additional bedroom, loft/flex space, and storage rooms—ideal for keeping everything organized or creating bonus spaces to fit your needs. The finished lower level provides even more versatility with a spacious rec room, full bath, office, laundry area, generous storage, and a walkout exterior entrance. Abundant storage throughout the home enhances everyday functionality, while the combination of charm, outdoor living, privacy, parking, and walkability makes this a truly rare downtown Frederick opportunity. A rear access ramp adds additional convenience and flexibility if desired.
