

BROOKSHADE

ALPHARETTA | MILTON

Tucked within the scenic landscapes of Milton just moments from the vibrant energy of Alpharetta, Brookshade is a refined residential community that seamlessly blends tranquility with convenience. This established community of approximately 138 homes offers a rare balance of privacy, space, and connection, set amid a peaceful, wooded setting.

Residents enjoy a lifestyle that is both relaxed and connected. As a swim and tennis community, Brookshade fosters an inviting, social atmosphere while still maintaining a quiet, residential feel. Tree-lined streets, manicured landscapes, and a strong sense of community pride enhance everyday living.

Location is one of Brookshade's most compelling advantages. Ideally positioned just minutes from downtown Alpharetta, Avalon, and GA 400, the neighborhood provides effortless access to some of North Atlanta's premier destinations for dining, shopping, and entertainment. At the same time, Milton's hallmark character is defined by rolling green spaces, a rural equestrian heritage, and a commitment to preserving natural beauty offers residents a distinctly elevated quality of life.

Families are drawn to the area for its access to highly regarded schools within Fulton County, including Cambridge High School, consistently noted among the region's top-performing institutions.

Brookshade appeals to buyers seeking more than just a home, it offers a lifestyle defined by space, serenity, and proximity. With its combination of timeless architecture, generous homesites, and an enviable location in one of North Atlanta's most desirable corridors, Brookshade remains a sought-after community for those looking to experience the very best of Milton and Alpharetta living.
