

SELLER'S PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
EXHIBIT " _____ "

2026 Printing

This Seller's Property Disclosure Statement ("Statement") is an exhibit to the Purchase and Sale Agreement with an Offer Date of _____ for the Property (known as or located at: 3470 CURITIBA CT ALPHARETTA, Georgia, 30022). This Statement is intended to make it easier for Seller to fulfill Seller's legal duty to disclose hidden defects in the Property of which Seller is aware. Seller is obligated to disclose such defects even when the Property is being sold "as-is."

A. INSTRUCTIONS TO SELLER IN COMPLETING THIS STATEMENT.

In completing this Statement, Seller agrees to:

- (1) answer all questions in reference to the Property and the improvements on the Property;
- (2) answer all questions fully, accurately and to the actual knowledge and belief of all Sellers (hereinafter, collectively "Knowledge");
- (3) provide additional explanations to all "yes" answers in the corresponding Explanation section below each group of questions (including providing to Buyer any additional documentation in Seller's possession), unless the "yes" answer is self-evident;
- (4) if prior to Closing there are any material changes in the answers to any of the questions, Seller shall promptly revise the Statement and provide it to the Buyer and any Broker involved in the transaction.

B. HOW THIS STATEMENT SHOULD BE USED BY BUYER. Caveat emptor or "buyer beware" is the law in Georgia. Buyer should conduct a thorough inspection of the Property. If Seller has not occupied or recently occupied the Property, Seller's Knowledge of the Property's condition may be limited. Buyer is expected to use reasonable care to inspect the Property and confirm that it is suitable for Buyer's purposes. If an inspection of the Property reveals problems or areas of concern that would cause a reasonable Buyer to investigate further, Buyer should investigate further. A "yes" or "no" answer to a question means "yes" or "no" to the actual Knowledge and belief of all Sellers of the Property. In other words, if a Seller answers "no" to a question, it means Seller either affirmatively knows that the answer to the question is "no" or has no Knowledge whether such condition exists on the Property. As such, Seller's answers should not be taken as a warranty or guaranty of the actual condition of the Property, nor a substitute for Buyer doing its own due diligence.

2. Items Not Remaining with the Property. Items identified as not remaining with the Property that are physically attached to the Property shall be carefully removed from the Property in a manner designed to do minimal damage, but such items do not need to be replaced with a similar item. Seller shall make reasonable efforts to repair areas damaged by the removal of an item. Reasonable efforts to repair damage shall not extend to painting newly exposed areas that do not match the surrounding paint color. (Seller is encouraged, but shall not be required, to remove fixtures not remaining with the Property prior to marketing the Property for sale). Seller shall remove all items left blank below prior to Closing or the transfer of possession, whichever is later. Seller shall lose the right to remove those items not timely removed but shall be liable to Buyer for the reasonable cost of disposing such items provided that Buyer disposes of them within 30 days after Closing or the transfer of possession, which is later.

3. Items Remaining with Property. Items identified as remaining with the Property shall mean those specific items, including any solely necessary or required controller, as they existed in the Property as of the Offer Date. No such item shall be removed from the Property unless it is broken or destroyed. In the event such item is removed, it shall be replaced with a substantially identical item, if reasonably available. If not reasonably available, it shall be replaced with a substantially similar item of equal quality and value, or better. The same or newer model of the item being replaced in the same color and size and with the same functions or better shall be considered substantially identical. Once the Seller's Property is under contract, the items that may be removed and taken by the Seller, as reflected in this Seller's Property Disclosure Statement, may only be amended with the written consent of the Buyer of the Property.
