

Insider Secrets

The listing tells you about the house. This tells you about the life around it: where coffee is, the kids parade in May and why nobody here drives much.

FAVORITE COFFEE SHOP

Never Coffee. Delicious coffee for sitting outside or taking a neighborhood walk.

FAVORITE RESTAURANT

So hard to pick just one. Wajan is amazing.

FAVORITE TAKEOUT

Matt's Texas BBQ at Hinterland

FAVORITE BAKERY

Tabor Bread

BEST BREAKFAST SPOT

Bacon, egg, potato burrito at Poblano Pepper.

FAVORITE PARK OR WALKING TRAIL

We love walking up through the neighborhoods to Mt Tabor park.

FAVORITE PLACE TO WATCH THE SUNSET

The rear bedroom of the house, or Mt Tabor above the reservoirs.

GROCERY STORE YOU USE MOST

New Seasons on Hawthorne. Fred Meyer, H Mart, and QFC are also easy walks.

FARMERS MARKET

Montavilla Farmers Market is the best and just on the other side of Mt Tabor.

GYM OR FITNESS STUDIO

The Practice Space for yoga and pilates

DOG PARK

There are official dog park at Laurelhurst & Mt Tabor park, but most people in the neighborhood use the Glencoe Elementary field as an afterhours dog park hangout.

LOCAL ANNUAL EVENT OR FESTIVAL

The most adorable annual event is the Glencoe Elementary Storybook parade in May. There is a marching band that leads the kids through the neighborhood and the kids dress up as characters from books they love. A fun summer series we enjoyed is Kickstand Comedy in the Park, which happens at Laurelhurst most Fridays in the summer.

HIDDEN NEIGHBORHOOD GEM

It's not really hidden, but the Belmont Library is a quick walk and it's such a luxury to have it so close. The remodeled library is about to reopen in August.

BEST PLACE TO MEET FRIENDS

Laurelhurst park or TPK Brewing (beer and tabletop games!)

FAVORITE DATE NIGHT

A nice cocktail at the Sapphire Hotel followed by drag bingo at the Space Room Lounge.

FAVORITE PLACE TO WORK REMOTELY

In the front yard with all the pollinators.

BEST NEARBY SHOPPING

Portland Nursery.

WHAT WE WILL GENUINELY MISS

The walkability. How quiet our street is, and only needing to walk a short distance for things to get more lively. Being on the 15 busline (best busline in Portland). Our wonderful neighbors.
